CANADA: A LEADER IN FREE TRADE

As the global economy emerges from recession, Canada is leading the way in promoting free trade. From pursuing trade agreements with the European Union and India, to searching out new trade and investment opportunities for Canadian businesses in Latin America, the Government of Canada is committed to creating jobs and prosperity at home and abroad.

Join Minister Van Loan for a timely discussion on:

- The leadership role Canada is playing globally in encouraging international investment and fighting protectionism
- Canada's ambitious free trade agenda
- How open trade will benefit Canadian businesses and contribute to a strong, sustainable global recovery

The Honourable
Peter Van Loan,
Minister of International Trade
